DO JUSTICE AT THE GATE

(Amos 5: 15)

Wednesday 20 October

11am Methodist Central Hall, London, then meet your MP

Christian Aid insists that the world can and must be swiftly changed to one where everyone can live a full life, free from poverty. Join us on Wednesday 20 October 2010 to take this message to the new Parliament.

BE INSPIRED
BE ACTIVE
CREATE CHANGE

Guest speaker: the Reverend Jesse Jackson

World-famous civil rights activist Jesse Jackson will address Christian Aid supporters in Methodist Central Hall before the lobby. Please join us there, and be inspired by our global partners from India, Haiti and Zambia – and our new Director, Loretta Minghella – speaking about what they are doing to help end poverty.

Then in the afternoon we will talk to our MPs in the nearby Houses of Parliament. With a new coalition government and over 200 new MPs, we have a real chance to put climate justice and tackling tax dodging at the heart of the coalition's agenda.

It's time to book the day off, rally your church group, or get your teachers on board. Whoever you are, wherever you live, be part of Christian Aid's main event of 2010.

'When the doors of opportunity swing open, we must make sure that we are not too indifferent to walk through.'

Reverend Jesse Jackson
